

Privacy Notice for prospective employees

Privacy notice – how the school uses prospective employees’ information

What categories of information are processed?

The categories of personal information that we process include the following:

- Personal information – e.g. name, contact details, National Insurance number
- Characteristics information – e.g. gender, age, ethnicity
- Qualifications and, where relevant, the subjects taught
- Recruitment information – e.g. documentation relating to employment checks, references

This list is not exhaustive – to access the current list of information the school processes, please see the school’s Data Asset Register,

Why do we collect and use your information?

We collect and use your information for the following reasons:

- To inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- To facilitate safer recruitment
- To review our recruitment performance

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the legal basis/bases we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes are:

- For the purpose in accordance with the lawful basis of For special category data, we also rely on the following conditions under Article 9 of the UK GDPR:

How do we collect your information?

We collect your personal information via the following methods:

- Application forms
- Questionnaires

Data relating to prospective employees is essential for the school’s operational use. Whilst most of the information you provide us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. To comply with the UK GDPR, we will inform you at the point of collection whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice.

How do we store your information?

We create and maintain a file for each vacancy. The information contained in this file is kept secure and only used for purposes directly relevant to the recruitment of the post.

Your personal information is retained and disposed of in line with the school's Records Management Policy,

For more information about how we securely store your information, please see the school's Data and Cyber-security Breach Prevention and Management Plan

Who do we share your information with?

We routinely share your information with:

- Ofsted

Why do we share your information?

We do not share information about you with anyone without your consent, unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

[Outline the reasons for sharing the information, including the lawful basis and any relevant legislation. An example has been provided for you.]

Sharing with Ofsted

We share information about prospective employees with Ofsted to evidence the school's recruitment process and equality of opportunity, in accordance with the School Staffing (England) Regulations 2009 and the Equality Act 2010.

Any information we share with other parties is transferred securely and held by the other organisation in line with their data security policies.

What are your rights?

You have specific rights to the processing of your data; these are the right to:

- Request access to the information we hold about you.
- Restrict our processing of your personal data, i.e. permitting its storage but no further processing.
- Object to direct marketing (including profiling) and processing for the purposes of scientific and/or historical research and statistics.
- Have your personal data rectified if it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- Not be subject to decisions based purely on automated processing where it produces a legal or similarly significant effect on you.
- Request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for the continued processing.

If you want to request access to the personal information we have about you, please contact Marie Calderwood on 01512369505

If you are concerned about the way we are collecting or using your information, please raise your concern with the school's DPO in the first instance. You can also contact the ICO at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns>.

How to withdraw consent and lodge complaints

[Use this section only where consent is the lawful basis for processing. If consent is not the identified lawful basis, delete this section.]
